MS. SATTIN: Good morning,
Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MS. SATTIN: If I may,
Your Honor, I would like to begin with a brief summary of my position and with a little bit of history that I will back up with testimony?

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SATTIN: And I would offer it in the nature of an opening statement.

THE COURT: Fine.

(Whereupon, Ms. Sattin
presented an opening statement to the Court on behalf of the plaintiff.)

THE COURT: Mr. Brouse, do you have any response in terms of an opening?

MR. BROUSE: I can't respond to any of that.

THE COURT: If you are ready to present testimony at this point, Ms.
Sattin, you may.

MR. SATTIN: Yes, I am,
Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

Brouse v. Brouse

3

MS. SATTIN: I would like to call Janet Brouse to the stand.

THE COURT: Okay.

PLAINTIFF'S EVIDENCE

JANET BROUSE, called as a witness, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. SATTIN:

Q Ms. Brouse, can you tell me where you reside?

A At 130 Woodview Lane, North Wales, Pennsylvania.

Q And with whom do you reside?

A I'm in the home with my sixteen year old son Christopher, and my daughter Daniele.

Q And these are Mr. Brouse's children as well?

A Correct.

Q Okay. Now, you filed a petition for emergency relief which brings us here today,
correct?

A Correct.

THE COURT: Can I

1
2 interrupt you?

3 MS. SATTIN: Yes, Your
4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: How old is
6 your son?

7 THE WITNESS: Sixteen.

8 THE COURT: Sixteen?

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And how old is 11 your daughter?

12 THE WITNESS: My daughter
13 is twelve.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 THE WITNESS: Sure.

16 BY MS. SATTIN:

17 Q And can you generally explain to the Court
18 why you requested a petition for emergency
19 relief be filed?

20 A It was filed due to concerns regarding a
21 web site, my husband's frightening behavior
22 causing me to be fearful for myself, the 23 children, my family, my lawyer, my friends and 24 my family.

25 Q What is your custody schedule since
